Eligible customers will be notified by email. To confirm your eligibility status, please email diabetes@amsl.com.au. By making a purchase with AMSL Diabetes you agree to the Terms & Conditions of sale and Privacy Policy listed at amsldiabetes.com.au. Insulin Pumps are medical aid devices intended for use by patients requiring insulin infusion. Insulin Pumps are not a substitute for, and should not replace, regular communication and training between the patient and the diabetes healthcare team. Dexcom G6 CGM consumables are sold separately. Details of the Tandem warranty policy can be found on the AMSL Diabetes website at amsldiabetes.com.au. Patient compliance is required for correct pump functionality. It is the patient's responsibility to seek clinical advice from their healthcare professional when necessary and to use the device as per usage instructions and warranty conditions. In agreement with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), patient records will be maintained in accordance with the National Privacy Principles. The healthcare team, its employees and agents assigns indemnity to Australasian Medical & Scientific Limited from and against all claims of whatsoever nature (to the maximum extent permitted by law) relating (whether directly or indirectly) to the cost of the Insulin Pump.
